Ben Williams unleashes O.C.L. (One Card Link), an astounding close up illusion that will BLOW YOUR AUDIENCE AWAY!

Effect

You have a card selected and tear two cardboard 'rings' from it. Both of the rings are then signed by the spectator - they are unbroken - completely in tact! You take both rings and place them into the spectator's hand. After a few moments concentration the spectator examines the rings only to find out that they are IMPOSSIBLY LINKED TOGETHER! The rings may now be examined - the spectator can keep them as a souvenir and will never be able to unravel the secret of how they became linked!

On this incredible video, Ben will take you step by step through the process of creating this stunning moment of magic. From start to finish, everything you need to know is covered in great detail and the video also includes 6 AMAZING BONUS IDEAS using the O.C.L. concept.

What are you waiting for? Give your next spectators a healthy dose of the impossible with Ben Williams' - O.C.L !
