This is a great walk-around effect, leaving your spectators in disbelief! Best of all, it is super simple in method, setup, and performance.

The cards are thoroughly shuffled by the spectator. They then fairly select a card, sign it, and it gets lost in the deck. The cards can be handled very fairly and freely and, with just a touch, you can pluck the card from the pack. It appears to almost jump into your hand! Instantaneous and very visual!
