"This shouldn't be possible. After watching this multiple times, I still have no idea how this works."

- Orbit Brown

"A beautiful, versatile, and deceiving technique."

- John Gustafaro

From the creator of Ascension comes a clean, natural card control to the bottom of the deck. In the most unsuspecting manner of simply springing the deck of cards, you unnoticeably control the spectator's signed card to the very bottom of the deck. Multiple variations are taught, such as controlling the card to the second-to-last position.

This is the Bound Control by Alex Loschilov.
