This effect is the perfect closer and is simply AMAZING! You will fool yourself with the method.

A spectator's signature reassembles itself on the side of a deck of ordinary playing cards and then multiplies in their hands. Your spectator truly mixes up the cards, and then the ink morphs into their name.

Sounds crazy? Not if it's from the mind of Paul Harris!

The audience goes WILD, and they have YOU to thank for this insane moment! You'll love performing The Vault - The Big Tiny, and you'll especially enjoy your spectator's reactions.
