

The Vault - IG by Josh Janousky video DOWNLOAD

Here's an incredible prediction effect using the spectator's own phone and their own Instagram app!

Get the entire audience to interact, gain new followers, and foresee the future using Instagram. A participant opens her Instagram app to find an impossible revelation. Your Instagram post - shared several months earlier - perfectly predicts the participant's previously chosen card. But it doesn't end there... the best stuff is in the post description: it incredibly contains HER name and a description of what she is wearing AT THAT VERY MOMENT! Remember, this was all posted MONTHS IN ADVANCE.

IG is a new utility for social media magic. Without using any special apps, you have the ability to reveal anything: playing cards, names, outfits, and more. IG doesn't require any stooges, assistants, or pre-show, and it all takes place on the legitimate Instagram app. Download the video now for immediate learning!

"Josh is a really interesting cat! His ideas are fresh, unique, and you can tell he really thinks about what he is doing."

- Peter Turner

"IG is a simple yet highly effective pocket prediction system. You'd have to be antisocial not to love this!"

- Michael Murray

"Clever antics using multiple phases and revelations through a social media platform. And it uses my favorite tool... intimacy!"

- Bobby Motta
