

The Vault - Tubular by Paul Harris video DOWNLOAD

Paul Harris does it again! Just his name tells you this will astound your audience. This is Paul's impromptu miracle where two signed bills impossibly morph into one bill with both names... all in the spectator's hands.

The spectator sees the two bills signed separately at the beginning - their signature on their bill, and yours on your bill. They fold up their bill, and you fold up yours. The two are placed into their hand. They are shocked to find that (1) the two bills are now one, and (2) both signatures are on it! This is a true magical moment, and it can be yours when you purchase this incredible video download: The Vault - Tubular.
