Magic at its most visual. Your audience actually sees a miracle change in an instant! Impossible but true!

The spectator sees what you've drawn on the back of a card. Instantly, the drawing changes! No way! WAY! Use this for predictions or anything else to amaze people.

One gimmick - endless possibilities!

You can change Sharpie drawings, or even throw a stamp and its image appears on the card!

After the magic moment, the spectator can touch the ink on the card immediately.
