A mystifying change - one card visually turns into the spectator's card!

Ask a spectator to select a card from the deck and sign it. You then place the signed card into the deck. Show the top card of the deck and the audience will see that it is not the selected card. Remove this top card. Turn the deck face up, but place the top card into the deck face down.

When the deck is turned over, the face-up card visually and instantly changes into the spectator's signed card. This looks incredible and extremely magical!
