What Are People Saying About This Package?

"Much like Victor Kiam, who was so impressed by the products produced by the shaving company Remington that he bought their company, as an experienced comedy stage hypnotist of decades of experience, I was so impressed by the speed, power and effectiveness of my student Robert Temple's ingenious See-Saw Hypnotic Induction Technique that I immediately purchased the world marketing rights upon it for a four-figure sum that very same day I had it demonstrated upon me."

- JONATHAN ROYLE - England

"Robert is a skilled hypnotist, who presents his ideas clearly. Despite his youth, his stage persona and experience shine through. His ideas, like mine and others, are influenced by his teachers and adapted by his own style. Anyone who buys this for the price they are selling it at will have some very useful material to help them become a great hypnotist. Jonathan Royle does a good job of interviewing, and adds some thoughts that are quite valuable."

- RICHARD NONGARD - USA

"As a working hypnotist, I thought I had seen all the best inductions about... until I watched Robert Temple's See-Saw. It ticks all the boxes for a great induction, and more that I had never considered before. It's a fun induction, for the performer, the subject and anyone watching. The See-Saw has worked on my subjects even after others have failed, including in busy, noisy night clubs, but also works just as well in quieter settings, and is ideal for therapy. I now use the See-Saw Induction regularly. It's my favorite method."

- STUART CASSELS aka "HARRIZON the HYPNOTIST" - UK

"I wanted an induction robust enough to cope with use on stage and in casual situations. The See-Saw is an efficient, direct, and self-contained induction that allows the hypnotist to demonstrate the untapped powers of the subject's mind and then quickly guide them into a deep stage of high suggestibility and deep hypnosis. The video is a mammoth length where Rob leaves no stone unturned, no questions unanswered... and then he does a silly dance!"

- KEN DYNE - Newcastle-Upon-Tyne

"As a hypnotic experience, the See-Saw Induction is a must. I have never experienced hypnosis in this way before. This induction gives you a wonderful feeling. From a hypnotist's point of view, it does EXACTLY what it says on the tin... it's the most effective and quickest way to put ANY participant into trance. Pure genius! Thanks Rob -- you have opened new doors into the world of hypnosis."

- ASH ARNOLD - UK

REVIEW - MAGICSEEN MAGAZINE - Issue 27 - July 2009:

Video 1 is basically a complete show by Robert Temple, filmed in a pub somewhere. This is really useful to study patter, pacing and style, and sees Robert in a noisy pub environment tackling subjects with very short attention spans. Temple knows his stuff, and even though he's very young, his confidence and grasp of an audience is impressive.

Video 2 sees Royle and Temple discuss hypnosis, and Temple shows his 'See-Saw Induction', which is very impressive. Royle has toned-down his normal abrasive style, and if he would go slightly more up-market, he would benefit even more. There's also the 'Standing/Sitting Crocodile Induction', and Royle's 'Snip &

Drop' rapid induction.

And then there are tons of bonus training videos and also, a complete step-by-step instruction manual included for good measure.

There's far too much to talk about in a single review, but this set basically includes all you need to get you kick-started into the world of hypnosis.
