

Perfect by Alessandro Criscione - Video - DOWNLOAD

After a period of artistic downtime, I have returned with my opening trick that I've had in my repertoire since about 2010.

In the beginning I used this as an opening for Aces routines, but something clicked in my mind ... the spectator chooses a card and, in a very random way, I find its identical twin card.

This can be repeated several times.

Buy and support my ideas ... a new effect will be arriving soon.
