

Zang by Mario Tarasini - Video - DOWNLOAD

The magician takes the card signed by the spectator, folds it in half, and splits the card into two parts! Only one hand movement and the card becomes whole again.

What sets this trick apart from others:

Before and after the trick, the spectator can inspect the card

There are no magnets

The best part is that the trick is not designed for social media it's for real performances!

Download the video and learn now!