#6 Trade Secrets - The Covert Collection by Benjamin Earl

This download contains all five of Ben Earls Trade Secrets.

#1 Trade Secrets - The Combination Shuffle by Benjamin Earl and Studio52
The Combination shuffle is a stunningly deceptive False Overhand Shuffle. Even when you know what is happening, it is hard to believe that no cards are out of place. You will learn everything you need to make this a part of your permanent repertoire.

#2 Trade Secrets - The Overhand DPS by Benjamin Earl and Studio 52
This handling of the Diagonal Palm Shift occurs within the action of a casual Overhand Shuffle. It simultaneously preserves a Top Stock-making it an extremely natural and versatile way to control, palm and steal cards.

#3 Trade Secrets - Finessed Frank Thompson Cut by Benjamin Earl and Studio 52

A breakdown of Ben's handling of the classic Frank Thompson False Cut. This False Cut technique has become a classic for good reason, it is simple, robust, and deceptive, however Ben's touches improve this already stellar classic. You will also learn a tabled version of this cut and a four-card production which creates the impression of four cards being cut from direct areas in one fluid sequence.

#4 Trade Secrets - False Swing Cut by Benjamin Earl and Studio 52
This is an amazingly deceptive False Swing Cut which looks completely innocent. Ben will go through all the touches, timing, and psychology to make this technique something practical and reliable. You will also learn several other uses of this technique including a Triple False Swing Cut, bottom stock control and more.

#5 Trade Secrets - Deceptive Card Control by Benjamin Earl and Studio 52
If you want to make the act of controlling a card to the top MUCH more deceptive, then this download is packed with expert touches, technique, and psychology to do just that-turning a very simple approach to control into something masterful. The best part is...only beginner skills are required!
