

Devil's Selection by Guillermo Dech - Video - DOWNLOAD

Think:

If you really had the power to stab a card with a marker: How would you do it?

After the success of Cardtrait, we are ready to take the spontaneity and naturalness of movements to a different level of impossibility.

Welcome to the Devil's Selection...

A visual, powerful and customizable method that will allow your card stab routines to feel completely organic and real.

A signed card is lost in the middle of the deck, and in the blink of an eye the spectator sees how his card among all the others is trapped in the cap of the marker.

And this is the best part; black background is not necessarily required!

After three years of work and development on this idea, it is time for this beast to see the light. Welcome to a true Card Stab, welcome to Devil's Selection.

The download includes:
