PETER TURNER X PIGCAKE

"This has been the most important trick in my life, and I have an affection for it shared by no other."

- Stuart James

The Open Prediction remains one of the most popular effects in close-up card magic. The participant shuffles a deck of cards and deals through them face-up ultimately dealing one facedown, sight unseen. That card matches a prediction set aside from before the trick was started.

This project shows you how to do that and much more!
