Fulton Plaid (Bourbon Brown) - Pokerdeck

There's nothing like a classic plaid back of playing cards. Since the beginning of time this iconic pattern has been a favorite of card users and collectors alike. This is the V1 of the Fulton Plaid Series known as "Chicago Lightning." A striking plaid pattern that tricks the eye the more you look at it.

Fulton reached back to the "old country" as his grandfather called it and filled these beautiful decks with icons and inspiration from the origin of plaid across the pond. An homage to the UK and Fulton's favorite card designer of all time, Andrew Dougherty.

Choose from either "White Whisky" or "Bourbon" for your tuck color. Both beautifully letterpressed by Clove St in San Diego featuring an all new design by Ethan Kowaleski.

Printed by the US Playing Card Co on Cambric 37 Stock, these are sure to be a staple of any card fanatic. Fulton reached deep into the family archives and created the ultimate plaid deck--the pattern is stunning in use--get those fanning hands ready.

Limited to 800 decks. When they're gone they're gone in this striking rendition.
