
Republic Artist (Black) - Pokerdeck

The Lost Angelus Republic deck was one of the fastest-selling decks we've released in a long time. Fully stocked to completely sold out in just 4 days.

But what we didn't tell everyone is that we printed more than one color of Republics... We also printed the REPUBLIC ARTISTS EDITION.

These cards are made by Artists for Artists. Celebrating the move monkeys, the card mechanics, and the tabletop killers.

Same luxury pressed E7 stock that you came to love from the Jeremy Griffith edition, but in a black-backed colorway. This deck is certified authentic with a signature black cigar-sleeve, nestled around the tuck.

We added it as the mystery deck on our site and said nothing, but you can't hide from the internet. Word got out and 3/4 of our stock was sold before the deck has even had its day in the sun.

With fewer than 700 decks left, this is your chance to own Republics: Artist Edition.
