
Private Reserve Remedies by Madison x Schneider - Pokerdeck

Celebrate the USPCC comeback of Daniel Madison and the 'Madison x Schneider Remedies' series with one of the most iconic playing cards; Limited Private Reserve Remedies Playing Cards.

Limited print run, designed exclusively for Daniel Schneider and Daniel Madison's PRIVATE USE ONLY; plus a small batch put aside for playing card collectors.

Be part of the select people to own this premier deck.

With the Private Reserve Remedies you will enjoy a more minimalist tuck box with no boarders. 'Private reserve' text is elegantly placed on the top flap. Inside you will see 'private reserve' text on the Ace of Spades, and a stunning, torn corner Angle Zero gaff back. Insanely realistic, you will want to brush it off every time you look at it.

Packed with hidden secrets and built-in magic tricks, Private Reserve Remedies includes an Angle Zero gaff and a series of brand new hidden revelations. Printed on USPCC's premium crushed paper stock (traditionally cut) this deck is the highest possible quality.

Madison and Schneider are so proud to present this minimally wonderful weapon of deception.

A new look and feel runs through the entire deck. Improved custom pips and indices, new custom faces on the Jacks and King of Spades plus hidden secrets on the Court cards. Daniel Schneider also redesigned Daniel Madison's iconic King of Diamonds that you see from now on in every new Madison deck.

And since Madison and Schneider both like to be the King of Diamonds, they added another King of diamonds to the deck.
