
Aeolus by Bocopo - Pokerdeck

The Aeolus Playing Cards created by Bocopo Playing Cards Co. and printed by USPCC, brings out a new style to the world of magic and cardistry. Implementing fluid shapes colored bright red and blue throughout the design, the Aeolus will give you the feel like a fire-tornado.

The Court cards are completely customized, each of them is dressed as if ready to some speedy work. The number cards follow the same layout as usual decks, but with small artworks at the edges to enhance the visuals of the deck. The back designs are meant to showcase your best moves, from fanning to displays. The spherical lines and shapes from the back design follow the patterns of a tornado, bringing out the speed and power to your movements. Ultimately, the Aeolus will be a great addition to your everyday carry!
