
Sugar Rush (Online Instructions) by Brian Platt

Perform absolutely impossible looking miracles, anytime, anywhere, with ease! And all with everyday objects- a couple of chocolates. The possibilities are endless, but listed below are a handful of favorites taught on the DVD. Sugar Rush! includes two custom machined gimmicks, access to a 30 minute online video and a few SR Pro Accessories as a complimentary bonus.

HERSHEY MINI ACROSS- Cleanly and fairly display that you have nothing more than two Hershey Minis in your hands- A Krackel and, say, a Hershey's Dark. Ask your spectator to name one of them. Let's say they name the Hershey's Dark. Close your fingers around the two bars. With absolutely no moves, the Hershey's Dark vanishes from your hand and instantly appears in your other hand. Or have it appear in nearly any 'impossible location.' Brian teaches many other variations on this basic usage including an open-handed 'invisible toss.' Carry two Hershey's minis with you and you're ready to fry anybody, anytime, anywhere. Even surrounded! When you're done, celebrate the moment by handing them a chocolate and enjoying one for yourself.

CANDY THRU MUG/TABLECLOTH/TABLE- So simple. Yet so utterly impossible. With rolled up sleeves, completely empty hands and absolutely nothing more than a Krackel, a Mr. Goodbar, and an empty coffee cup you're ready to perform miracles . The empty cup is turned over (and yes, it really is empty.) And yes, the two candies are really resting on your hand. Close your fingers around them and tap the upside down cup. Instantly the Goodbar goes through the bottom of the cup and inside of it. The spectators can even lift the cup themselves. Next, you fairly place both candies under the cup. With no moves one of the candies appears outside the cup. You can then make the candy go through napkins, tablecloths, and even the table itself!

ZIPLOCK PENETRATION- A combination of principles that makes for pure visual magic with apparently no explanation. Show a clear, ziplocked bag filled with Mr. Goodbars and clearly nothing other than Mr. Goodbars. Pick up 3 other candies and explain that you're going to make your favorite candy, say the Krackel, magically penetrate through the baggie. Proceed to knead it right through the plastic! It doesn't get any fairer looking than this. Remove the Krackel while showing it truly is in the bag with the Goodbars! The spectators will immediately reach for the bag. Let them, as the bag and all the candies inside are 100% examinable. You've got absolutely nothing to hide.
