

PAYphone by Corey Burke - DVD

A phone call can change your life, but for one man it can also end it.

Set within the confines of a Portland pay phone, magician Corey Burke finds himself coerced into performing tricks for random passer-bys. How far will he take his magic to save his life, or will he risk it all by hanging up and walking away?

Coinfusing Production - A play on words that will leave their heads spinning as three coins are magically produced from thin air.

De Ja Vu - Wait a minute... didn't I just see that?

EKN - Corey's wonderful version of Elbow Knee and Neck.

Smooth as Silk - Expansion of texture with a KICK(back) that is.

Baring The Load - A heavy hitting card under box routine with a kicker ending. This one will slay even magicians.

Triclops - This is the three coin production that first appeared in Corey's notes "Sense."

Plus Bonus Effects and Deleted Scenes!
