

Lucy Strikes Gold Samuel Patrick S

You show a large (9" x 12") card with a picture of that most adorable rabbit, Lucy. One day, Lucy "strikes gold" when she finds a whole patch of carrots. You show three other cards of brilliant orange carrots with delightfully green tops. The trouble is, Lucy gets lost in the carrots. You turn Lucy around and the spectators try to guess where she is, but they can never find her. Why? Because she has completely disappeared! When you do locate her, she has obviously eaten too many carrots!

Hilarious, colorful, and visual. Inspired by a James Swoger idea. Artwork by Selina Frederick.

Comes complete with the necessary cards, colorfully printed on thick stock to last long.
