

Word In A Million by Nicholas Einhorn and JB Magic-

The Any Word, Any Book BOOK TEST

Effect

ANY book is casually flicked through by your spectator and ANY page is stopped at. ANY word is looked at and remembered, the book is snapped shut. While you turn away the thought of word is written down on any a piece of paper or a napkin etc, the paper is rolled up into a ball. WITHOUT ANY questions, guidance etc you name out loud the word they are nearly thinking of. The paper is un-rolled it says the word you NAMED.

Can be performed with a different book each and every time if you wish and ALWAYS a different word.

Complete with gimmick that fits any hardback book and complete handling at an unreal price! Dvd includes Mark's tapping move, this little piece of business is excellent.

- NO Adding Numbers to Force Words, Lines or Pages!!
- NO Memory Work, Questions or Fishing of Any Kind!
- ANY Language Book & Prediction!
