

Devil's Bandana V2 (Orange) by Lee Alex

We listened to reviews, we listened to customers' feedback, we listened to dealer comments!

New colors - new design - new organic look. The devil's handkerchief that you can wear!

This wickedly clever utility device can be worn (if you wish) as a neckerchief, bandana or face covering.

"Every magician needs a Devil's Hank: it's an essential tool for good magic. Lee has created one of the finest you'll ever obtain."

- Jeff McBride (Creator of the Magic & Mystery School, Las Vegas)

Color choices: Black, red, blue, green, purple, and now... orange

New design! We have removed all magic themed design elements leaving you with a bandana that is more organic!!

The bandana measures a whopping 20 inches x 20 inches (50 cm x 50 cm) and features a 'no snag pocket', which disguises the items after you have vanished them. The secret pocket contained within the Devil's Bandana allows you to vanish large items at ease. We even fitted a full bottle of wine in the pocket comfortably before making it vanish in a more conventional way!

The Devil's Bandana can also be used to produce, switch or force items.

- Available in black, red, blue, green, purple, orange
- Measures 20 inches x 20 inches (50cm x 50cm)
- Purpose printed silk satin fabric
- Features a concealed buttons to help find the pocket with ease
- Unique design made from a single piece of fabric for extra strength

"Absolute highest quality as you expect from Lee Alex"
