

SC2KR (Signed Card to Keyring) by GRUM Handcrafted

The ultimate EDC for card magicians and mentalists

Looking for the ultimate EDC where you can perform the mind-blowing card effect where a signed card is in your keyring in full view from the beginning of the trick! Or how about a note with full written prediction inside your keyring?

This new utility device from the creative minds of Ari Phillips and Sean Jackson will be on your keys the minute you get it and ready to perform straight out the box. It's that simple yet so powerful and visual!

The SC2KR is in its final stages of development and final tweaks being made to the product and packaging but there has been a huge amount of interest and hype about the new release we have decided to register your interest in the product so we can notify you all when its ready for release.

When this awesome little key ring is ready, you will be able to

- Easily get the key ring on and off your set of keys.
- Change the gimmick from red, blue or whatever cards you're using.
- Add a business card rather than playing card.
- Use it for a billet.
- Quality leather keyring
- Instant and easy reset
- Guaranteed reactions
- Perfect EDC
- Easy and fun to perform
- No forces- Simply any signed card!
