

Raiders of the Lost Card by Michael Breggar - Buch

Are you ready to give the last crew aid?

Will you follow a template of doom?

It's time for the adventures of Jerseyana Mike and the Raiders of the Lost Cards!

Put on your pith helmet and try not to be so pithed, when you grab your satchel, page and whip and get ready for another Auto-Magical journey into the vast, cluttered, deep, dark jungle-y mind of Michael Breggar. Your jonesing for comedy card magic will be slaked. "Slakes. Why did it have to be slakes?" Barrel forward through earthquakes, rats, fire ants, and legions of cultists!

Here's what you'll dig up:

- 35 astounding, entertaining and highly commercial effects that will have your audiences' heads exploding and faces melting!
They include "mystery card" effects, transpositions, a quirky magic square performed with cards and an unbelievable kicker ending, weird card locations, "un-memory" demonstrations, hands-off Oil and Water, Open Prediction and ACAAN effects. And more than you can crack a whip at!
- Plus - there is Michael's blockbuster Bad Bikes with a huge section of cool variations.
- Plus Plus - A selection of five remarkable, tried and tested, and hugely entertaining "Think-of-a-Card" effects from which you will "choose wisely".
- Plus Plus Plus - the "Museum of Moves" in which the curator will show you some sleight-lite moves to enhance your card magic.
- Plus Plus Plus Plus - the usual craziness and satire you'd expect from a Michael Breggar magic book (and some you wouldn't)!

In all, you'll be Non Plus Plus Plus Plus Ultra'd over the whole serial chapter play.

So, shuffle your Bees, find some Aviators, hop on your Bicycles, gather your Cohorts then put their pet snake Reggie in a box. You are in for some rousing excitement!

Here's what some intrepid adventurers have to say:

"Michael Breggar has become one of my favorite magic authors. His work is well thought out, often uses little known principles in very creative ways and provides some wonderful presentations and scripts. Raiders of The Lost Card may be his best book yet. It's not the Ark of the Covenant, but it contains real treasures: great routines, engaging presentations, and it is just so much fun to read!"

- Marc Desouza

"Michael once again raids the storehouse of his imagination to give you surreal tricks to play with."

- Jon Racherbaumer

"What a fun read! Each item comes complete with a fully formed and wonderfully entertaining presentation that surrounds excellent magic effects. This is commercial magic at its best and sleight-light to boot. Breggar has done it again! Highest recommendation."

- Mike Powers

"Mike's new book is packed full of great sleight light material that I loved every moment reading! I predict you will love it too."

- John Carey

"This is an excellent book, filled with clever routines, strong magic and Michael Breggar's typically ingenious thinking - gold dust!"

- Chris Wardle
