

52 Predictions by N2G and XZ

"52 Prophecies." This effect, where the audience thinks of any card and the magician accurately predicts it, has always been viewed as one of magic's most astounding feats. Yet, many such effects are fraught with limitations.

However, "52 Prophecies" has tackled these issues head-on, offering the cleanest and most direct solution yet! The magician presents a card depicting a miniature magician, who pulls out a card labeled a prophecy. The magician then invites the audience to think of any card from the deck and name it. With no questions asked or forced choices, and devoid of any suspicious actions, the magician simply tears open the prophecy - the card held by the magician in the card mirrors the one envisioned by the audience! Yes, you heard it right; this prop flawlessly demonstrates the prophetic effect of all 52 cards, with each one displayable without prior setup or the need for resets. Performances are limitless; you can immediately proceed to a second or third round.

This fully practical prop ensures a powerful performance. Included is a standard card for switch-outs, and the tutorial explains two methods of switching seamlessly integrated into the performance flow. This two-part performance design is sure to convince and astound your audience, who can even examine the cards afterward. Impress your audience today with the strongest magic prop of 2024!
