

Double Cross Pro Holder by GRUM Handcrafted

Do you own Double cross by Magic Smith and Mark Southworth?

Struggle to find an ideal way to keep it on your person without ruining (or loosing) the 'gimmick' or your clothes?

I have come up with the perfect solution to something I and many magicians have struggled with for years. A pen holder ideal for performers of double cross. This allows you to keep the pen safe, free from your clothing, easy access and ready to perform at a moment's notice. Not only is it made from premium quality leather and suede, but it can be worn on the belt and in the jacket pocket too. It also has an integrated secret hold out which is an added bonus. If you perform this effect this is going to be a winner for you!

The DC Pen Holder Pro

Rather than a fixed loop there are two magnetic latches which securely hold the pen holder onto your belt and inside your jacket pocket.

This also can fit on any other garment easily and sits flush, Ideal for female performers with limited pocket space but can also easily fit to any waistcoat, jacket pocket or trousers without a belt.

Both options have the added bonus of being used for a hold out too.

Other used for this holder are:

- Sharpie pen holder
- Spider pen holder
- Wand holder
- Among others
