

Wonders of the World - Bühnentrick

The magician shows a board and some cards with the pictures of some very famous tourist attractions on them. He calls a spectator, has the cards shuffled and then put with their backs towards the audience, in various transparent pockets that are on the board.

Next the spectator freely chooses any one of the cards and turns it over to show its face. Believe it or not, on the back of the board there will be a giant card for the magician's prediction that will have on it exactly the tourist attraction chosen by the spectator!

- The board measures cm 25,5(10") x 30(11,8").
- The effect is very easy to perform, and will be appreciated by any kind of audience.
