

The Only Queen

If you like the classic BWave effect you will love The Only Queen, because now ANY Queen can be named!

The magician puts four face down cards on the table.

A spectator thinks freely of one of the four queens. The magician then shows that he unbelievably predicted the thought of queen!

- Simple and impactful!
- Practically automatic. You will always carry it with you.
- Two endings are possible, one more impossible and devastating than the other.
