Behind the Storie

The Copper Foil Edition inspired by the ancient art of Chinese bronze mirror-making, designed to play with the light, giving flourishes that extra flair. It require a large area foil printing, and has been taken us half a year in prototype production. Hot foil printing isn't really stability in production. It depend on everything are matched completely. Please understand that playing cards stock even include the pattern on its surface. Sometimes the hot foil printing will also make the card out of shape by special artwork. Don't forget it's the thinner and softer paper stock. These are production limitation to force us trying, replacing, modifying and reprinting over and over again! However, we're proud to share with you that we finally have a success way to produce with the artwork. This edition it's a limited edition."
