

Giant Feather Fantasy

The magician shows a tube to be empty, and puts inside it an orange feather duster. After a magical gesture he pulls it out, showing that it has changed into a bouquet of flowers. He then puts a blue duster in the tube changing it to orange, and then once again shows the tube empty.

He now puts in the tube a green duster that, after a moment, changes into a colored flag. The magician continues putting a red duster in the tube and changing it to green.

He shows the tube empty again and, finally, he puts inside a yellow duster ... after a magical gesture it changes into an umbrella!
