

Sitta Blendo Black and White

The magician shows two silks: a white one in his right hand and a black one in his left. He joins them and twists them several times, stretching them as if to lengthen them. In fact, at a certain point, the two silks really do lengthen, but when the magician unwinds everything, a single large black and white striped silk will appear!

- This is a high-quality original Sitta item.
- Supplied with the necessary silks. The white and black silks measure 30x30 cm, the striped blendo measures 57x57 cm.
