

Silk in Bottle

The magician shows an empty plastic bottle, and puts a tube over it. He then picks up a silk and mysteriously makes it vanish. When he lifts the tube from the bottle, everybody will see that the vanished silk has incredibly reappeared inside the closed bottle. The magician then unscrews the cap and takes the silk out.

- A highly visual effect that is great for any kind of audience.
- All the necessary to perform the effect is supplied. The tube is cm 25,5 (10") tall and has a diameter of cm 7,3 (2,9").