

Perfo by Alexis Touchard

If you want highly visual magic, here you have it!

Two cards are selected by two different spectators. The magician then shows a prediction card that is full of holes.

Just a shake, and the holes visibly arrange to form the first chosen card. But that is not all because the card is thrown in the air, and when the magician catches it the holes have rearranged once more and now show the second selected card!

A super visual and fascinating two card reveal on just one card!

- Easy to perform.
- Great both for social media and close-up.
- Fast reset.
- Gimmick and props are included together with easy to follow video instructions.
