

Melting Key

The magician shows a new key that has no “teeth” as it has not yet been cut. He starts to rub the it, and right in front of the spectators eyes, magically cuts the teeth into the key, that can then be immediately handed out for examination.

An original effect with an everyday object!

- Easy to do.
- Comes supplied with everything you need.