

Imp Bottle - Wood

The magician shows a small bottle and claims that it is the home of a ghost. The audience cannot make the bottle lie down on its side till the ghost is inside! The magician asks the ghost to come out from the bottle. Then lays the bottle on its side and it remains on its side. But when the audience tries to copy it they fail... because the ghost is inside again!

This is a cute funny trick which you will always love to do!

- A beautiful classic tool, in an elegant guise.
- The bottle is made with extreme care in wood. It is 9 cm (3,54") high and the diameter is approximately 5 cm (1,96").