

High Victorian Playing Cards

The world's most intricate, sophisticated and elegant playing cards: High Victorian Playing Cards, shielded in gold and green foil.

Finely crafted, premium playing cards for the inquisitive mind. Designed in London by Joe White. Made in America.

High Victorian Playing Cards were inspired by the intricate, breathtaking style of the Victorian era. Every element was designed from scratch with painstaking, relentless attention to detail.

Every single playing card within the High Victorian deck was designed from scratch - even the Aces, Jokers, and court cards exude the grand excess of ornamentation quintessential to the Victorian era. In a word: breathtaking.

A three dimensional back design that seemingly adds more detail with each and every look. The back design is as detailed as it is UNIQUE. Over 18 months in the making - and it shows!

- The cards are poker size.
