

Dice Game by Tora Magic

The magician asks the spectator to choose one color among the six colored dice present.

After the spectator has chosen, the drawer is opened and inside is the magician's prediction which, incredibly, corresponds to the spectator's choice!

- Nail everyone with this item, make deadly predictions, works with any color of choice without the need for force. Challenge people's minds and read their minds.

- Does not require any practice. Is very eye catching and simple even for Children, you can apply this amazing effect as soon as you open the package!
