

20th Century Frame

The magician shows a rectangular frame and tucks two silks of the same color in two small holes that are in its opposite ends. He then places a balloon in the center of the frame between the silks. A different colored silk is magically made to vanish. The magician then takes a long pin and pops the balloon. To everybody's surprise the vanished silk instantly reappears tied between the silks that had been placed in the frame before.

- The item measures cm 44(17,3") x 25(9,8") x 7(2,8"), and is supplied with the necessary silks, with the special gimmick to make a large silk vanish and with 10 balloons.
