

Chinese Rice Bowls - Painted

The magician shows two bowls, one filled with rice and the other empty. He puts the empty one over the first one, and as he takes it off the rice has increased so as to fill also the empty bowl. Now the magician removes all the rice and piles up the bowls again. In the end, as he lifts the upper bowl, the lower one will be filled with water.

- No skill required, suitable for any kind of audience.
- Bowls have a diameter of cm 18,5 (in. 7) and are cm 7,5 tall (in. 3).
- Made in aluminium and painted semi-clay.