

Coin Exchange

The magician shows a small wallet containing a playing card, a half dollar coin, and a Chinese coin that has a hole in it. He takes out the card and the half dollar, leaving the Chinese coin in the wallet. He puts the half dollar on the wallet, taps it with the card instantly and visibly changing it into the Chinese coin! When the wallet is opened, the half dollar is found inside.

An truly baffling transposition!

- Examinable.
- Very visual.
- The coins change places in an split second.
