

Card to Wallet

The magician has a card chosen, which is signed and returned to the deck. Then, he takes his wallet, opens it and there is a compartment closed by a zip. The magician opens it and pulls out the signed card from inside the compartment!

- This wallet also allows for a second loading system that will allow you to find the card inside the inner compartment closed with the button!