

Captain America Playing Cards

“I can do this all day!”

Captain America was one of the very first Avengers. From a skinny kid from Brooklyn to the first super-soldier, Steve Rogers was a symbol of hope. After defeating the Red Skull, he was frozen for almost 70 years, after being out of the ice, he carried his heroism and defeated all threats from Earth. We are about to take you into the journey of Steve Rogers (a.k.a Captain America), created by Marvel Studios. His iconic Vibranium Shield will light up as a symbol of his legacy.

Main Features:

The Iconic Captain America Suit with Vibranium Shield From Captain America. The Captain America Deck lights up in WHITE LED inside the shield symbol. The back design features Captain America's color schemes followed by his iconic shield in the middle.

Magnetic Opening and Closing System with Built-In Magnet Lighting Sensor & LED Lights circuit board.

The Center of the shield Lights Up when you open the Tuck Case. LED Lights last more than 100,000 Seconds with Battery included.

Featuring Laser Engraving, Laser Cutting, and Hand Assembly. Each tuck case is constructed with 20 components & 70 gluing parts, which takes an hour to complete the full hand assembling process.

Tuck Case features Blue, Red & Silver hot stamp foil on premium matte finish paper with embossing.
