

Two Copper and One Silver by Tango (D0063)

Effect

The magician displays three coins - a silver coin, a Mexican coin, and one English penny coin. Places the three coins in his left hand and closes the hand. Then, takes a half dollar coin and places it in the right hand. Incredibly, when he opens the left hand the silver coin is there. While opening the right hand, the Mexican and the English penny coins are there. The magician say that he will repeat it. Places the three coins in the left hand and closes the hand. Taking the half dollar coin and this time he places it in right pocket of his jacket. When opens the left hand, the half dollar coin is there again. He then asks for a spectator to place his hand in the pocket and remove everything out of the pocket. Incredibly, the Mexican and the English penny coin are now in that pocket. Everything can be given to examine.
