

Out for Dinner by GRUM Handcrafted

A quality accessory, perfect for performing out to lunch with a touch of class!

This fabulous leather card carrier not only neatly holds your cards and looks classy and elegant, but enables you to have variations prepared and changed quickly and easily. The clever robust band around the cards enables you to securely hold the secret gimmick in place without it moving when you remove the signed card. The clever system designed into the holder enables you to easily change them as required. When you invest in this fabulous accessory you also get the benefit of downloading plenty of Ari's own graphics , artwork ready and specially prepared for you to add directly to the back of your own business cards.

This effect is superb and ensures you are easily able to give your business card out with a memory attached to it so they want to keep it!
