

Rebel Knot by Mr. Daba

Watch as a rebellious knot defies all odds and reappears on a rope, no matter how often the magician tries to remove it. This interactive routine is perfect for young audiences, as children are encouraged to participate and witness the magic unfold.

The fun doesn't stop there! The magician introduces the concept of "magical knots" floating in the air. Children are invited to catch these magical knots and toss them into an empty bag, only to find that real knots have magically appeared!

With laughter, surprises, and plenty of audience involvement, The Knot Rebel is a captivating and memorable magic trick that will delight children of all ages.
