Vanishing Depot - Pokerdeck

Made in the USA. The Vanishing Depot is a collection of art from painter Ranulph Bye. The collection is beautifully painted train stations and depots across the North East coast of the United States. The purpose of this collection was to preserve these stations in the form of paintings before they were either demolished or abandoned.