More about FRUTE BRUTE®;ç:

First introduced in 1974--FRUTE BRUTE®;ç became the first Monster outside of the core three. Since being retired from shelves back in 1982, Mr Brute has achieved cult classic status thanks to being the favorite cereal of Mr. Quentin Tarantino and making an appearance in the background of films such as "Pulp Fiction" and "Reservoir Dogs." We are proud to announce Frute Brute now starring in his very own deck of custom playing cards.
