

EquivoKey-Pro (Coin) by GRUM®

EquivoKey-Pro (Coin) by Ari Phillips & Sean Jackson

Powerful, impromptu effect using a coin, business cards & your keys.

A perfect EDC you can have on all the time to perform a simple which hand effect, optical illusion, and mind reading miracle anytime, anywhere, while also leaving the spectator with your contact details.

Comes complete with a specially printed poker chip you are also able to present an awesome optical illusion to make money appear (A coin for instance if you want to use a coin for the reveal) and also a which hand routine.

The key ring comes in black premium quality leather with a quality chrome lobster claw to easily clip and remove from your keys during performance.

There is a choice of two predictions Coin or Poker Chip. The foil embossing inside can be the following:

Coin - I will have the keys, you will have, and the card is in the pocket.

Poker Chip - I will have the keys, you will have the poker chip, and the card is in the pocket. The option will depend on how you choose to have the final reveal and if you want to have the extra coin on you or not (5c/ 5p for instance)

The optical illusion poker chip will still be included if you opt for the coin version. You make the coin appear and then use the coin for the routine and the poker chip for the which hand. But it also offers you the option to use any coin or a Morgan dollar/ lucky coin or similar for instance in place of the poker chip.

This prop comes complete with written instructions, simple script and cheat sheet!

Easy to do magic and no skill required!
