

Art Trivia by David Jonathan, Nikolas Mavresis, & TCC Magic

Designed by David Jonathan and Nikolas Mavresis, Art Trivia is a unique and humorous packet trick themed around famous artworks.

The magician introduces a set of envelopes, each containing a famous oil painting, and engages the participant in a brief trivia game to name the paintings inside. This warm-up round sets the stage for the real challenge: identifying the fake painting among the genuine ones. The participant confidently chooses a painting, believing it to be the fake.

The magician then reveals the paintings not chosen, showing a bold X on the back of each, indicating they are fakes. Finally, the selected painting is revealed to have a check on its back, seemingly confirming it as the fake. However, in a humorous twist, the magician explains that the check marks the only real painting. The other paintings are then flipped over to reveal they have magically transformed into hilariously drawn fakes, which can be examined by the participant.

All the cards in Art Trivia are made with playing card craft, making them smooth and durable. Carefully selected fun patterns are paired with professional art design, making them unique and beautiful.
